Dear Friends,

Thanks so much for your consideration to become a Corporate Sponsor for the Lexington County Choral Society (LCCS). Corporate sponsorships help LCCS continue as a viable community service organization in Lexington County that provides quality artistic experiences for members of our community. Since our humble beginning, twenty seven years ago, LCCS has accomplished the following things: creating the H. T. Lorick, Jr. Vocal Scholarship and the Sylvia E. Looney Piano Scholarship for high school students; parenting the Lake Murray Symphony Orchestra; showcasing local middle and high school choirs, vocalists, pianists and instrumentalists on our concerts; featuring additional renowned conductors/composers such as Dr. Larry Shackley, Joseph Martin, Pepper Choplin, Mark Hayes, Raymond Hughes and Dr. Porter Stokes. In early 2014 LCCS presented its first benefit concert where profits went to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. Without generous sponsorships over the last twenty-seven years, LCCS would not have been able to accomplish all these wonderful projects and more. Please consider becoming a corporate sponsor for LCCS enabling us to continue bringing Lexington County these and many other invaluable endeavors. As a non-profit 501c3 organization we are governed by a board of 18 directors.
